

Tax Liability of Expanded HAP Benefits

- Benefit amounts above current fair market value (sale price) will be taxed as part of applicant's gross income (Federal, state, local).
- Tax laws require that taxes be withheld prior to paying lien holders and applicants.
- Proposed House Ways and Means Committee legislative change, HR 3590, will eliminate expanded HAP benefits tax liability if signed into law.